

TERROIRSENSE

WINE REVIEW

2018 Alsace (Gewurztraminer) Zinnkoepflé Grand Cru

94

Good full vibrant golden yellow. Ripe, balanced and very spicy, offering boatloads of custard cream and tropical fruit nuances on the nose and on the palate. Magnificent wine and a real testimony to the meaning of grand cru (anybody with a little experience can recognize this as a Zinnkoepflé wine). 100% Gewurztraminer that is marvellously balanced (34 g/L residual sugar and 7.5 g/L total acidity) and long. This basically has the same name as another Rieflé wine made with 100% Gewurztraminer so I am including the wine grape name in brackets above, though you find it on the front label. Isn't wine (and producers) just so much head-shaking fun? Drinking window: 2023-2028.

Ian D'Agata